Program Rules Summary

- 1 Aloha Airlines reserves the right to terminate the AlohaPass Frequent Flyer Program without notice, so that, regardless of how much you participate in the program, your right to accumulate miles can be terminated at such time as Aloha Airlines specifies.
- 2 Participation in the AlohaPass Frequent Flyer Program is subject to all terms and conditions (Program Rules) or any other rules, regulation policies and procedures that Aloha Airlines may in its discretion adopt from time to time. Any abuse of the Program privileges, failure to follow the terms and conditions, any conduct detrimental to the interest of Aloha Airlines or our affiliated/participating companies may be subject to cancellation from the Program, cancellation of accrued mileage awards, or both. A complete set of rules is available on the internet or through the AlohaPass Service Desk, P.O. Box 30028, Honolulu, Hawaii 96820.
- 3 Aloha Airlines also reserves the right to make changes in the Program Rules, accrual rates, award structure, or levels of miles required for any or all awards, in whole or in part, at any time, such as raising mileage levels, revising the procedures and regulations for mileage accrual, award redemption and ticketing. Any changes can be made without advance notice.
- 4 Only one (1) AlohaPass account is permitted per person; members must enroll individually by an authorized enrollment form. AlohaPass membership will be maintained in the name of the individual and not in the name of the commercial enterprise, partnership, association, corporation, government entity or family. Pooling of miles between individuals (immediate family only) are allowed through the OhanaPlan only. Flight miles are earned from the enrollment date into the AlohaPass Frequent Flyer Program; and retroactive miles prior to the enrollment date are not permitted. Membership and any miles remaining are terminated upon death of the member and are non-transferable.
